MEET THE DESIGNER

As the author of a collection of popular interior inspiration books, a renowned interior designer and the design director of three design and concept stores, Lesley Taylor lives for interior design. She has a burning passion for home renovation, loving nothing more than getting involved with every aspect of a project, start to finish; from the tiles and furniture right through to smaller items that add that all important finishing touch such as candles and photo frames. Lesley has built the Taylor's Etc brand to be one of the top interior design companies in the Wales area. Taylor's Etc stocks not only products from some of the world's most prestigious manufacturers but it also offers a line of its own brand home furnishings. It has always been Lesley's dream to create a place where homeowners can find inspiration for the entire home and where advice and design experience is second to none.
